Mr. Jeff?

What were you thinkin' when you sent that cheesy "wallpaper" response to EBSA's inquiry in October 2009? As Cavalier's EVP of HR, one would assume you know they're a federal agency. This ain't gonna' look good on your resume, kid.

Maybe your outside counsel can coach you better this time around ... on how to handle your upcoming depositions, of which there are likely to be many.

Don't forget your flu shots. I wouldn't want any of you getting sick.

See all y'all soon!

Sincerely,
Cliff Hancuff

PS: You can't say I didn't warn ya's, Ms. Francie.
